CELEBRATE FALL AT TAMARACK RESORT WITH OKTOBERFEST AND SEASONAL SCENIC TOURS

Family-friendly event on September 25 from 12-6 p.m.

TAMARACK, Idaho (September 20, 2021) — Tamarack Resort is welcoming fall with its inaugural Oktoberfest celebration and scenic tours and activities to experience Idaho's fall colors.

The family-friendly event on September 25 from 12-6 p.m. in the Village Plaza will feature authentic German music from Wolfie and the Bavarians and a variety of seasonal Oktoberfest beers crafted by Idaho breweries. Featured brewery Powderhaus Brewing Company will pour their Dunkelweizen, Prusik Pilsner, Oktoberfest and Honey Helles Lager. Beers are $8 each and commemorative steins will be available for $20 while supplies last. Tamarack's food truck will be serving bratwurst, turkey legs and soft pretzels. Wildhorse Daycare will host a Kids' Kinderplatz with children's activities including face painting and pumpkin painting.

Guests have a variety of ways to experience Tamarack throughout the fall. The resort's namesake, the remarkable tamarack trees (Western Larch), surround the property and change from pine green to autumn gold from September through November. Tamarack's fall excursion guide <https://tamarackidaho.com/activities/fall-colors> provides scenic hiking, biking and driving tours in the area to view the spectacular fall colors in the meadows, along Lake Cascade and on the mountain. Cross country mountain bike rentals are available through October 1. Guided ziplining tours and axe throwing sessions are open for reservations through mid-October, weather permitting.

This is also a great time for guests to snag their discounted 2021-2022 All-Season Boundless Pass before prices go up on October 1. Local students eligible for the SKY Pass are encouraged to visit the Adventure Center to get their FREE pass.
